Aberdeen Association for Counselling came into being in 1981 and became the Counselling Forum in 2001. In 2016 its name was changed to 'Aberdeen Counselling Forum'. Membership is open to anyone involved or interested in counselling or the counselling approach.

Evening, Saturday and weekend workshops are held. Events are open to non-members (for a small increased fee) unless otherwise stated.

Membership offers:

- free attendance on weekday evening presentations
- (up to 3 people from organisations)
- discounts on Saturday and weekend workshops
- (up to 3 people from organisations)
- E-Mailings and updates regarding future workshops and events.

Your subscription covers the year from September to August and goes towards the fees for evening speakers and venue costs. If you join after February, the membership fee will be half-price.

Charges made for weekend events are to cover the presenters' fees and expenses as well as the costs of the venue.

Please notice that refunds will not be made in case of cancellation or non-attendance unless made within 48 hrs before event.
